subjected to individual systematic review.

[ ] Do you remember my mentioning before I left a dream I had? The subject was my walking into your office with a certain person - the name starting with "S". If you don't remember who he is, check with [ ] and his assistant.

I have not revealed any connections with our own business concern to this person. However, I have established contact with him. Our French competitors are about to close a deal with him and we must move rather rapidly. I have not informed our own business associates in Germany.

I had to give personal guarantees which cannot be violated and which are warranted by the nature of this deal. The present situation is I am expecting to hear from this person any day. I will have to know what to do if he will grant me an interview, and under what guarantees and conditions.

We are confirming this telephone conversation by cable. In the cable I shall refer to the person in question with "Number 1", and to our French competitors with "Number 2". Your Finnish secretary has a list of the names. That is about all. Have you understood everything?

[ ] Yes.

[ ] We are sending a cable to you today and we will give you all of the details.
